

GERMANS MAKE VAIN ATTACKS

ALL ATTEMPTS ARE BEATEN OFF

Counter Attacks by the Germans the Last Twenty-Four Hours Are Futile.

FRENCH POSITIONS FINE

Fury of German Attacks Shows the Germans Are to Spare No Efforts against French.

PARIS, August 1.—The Germans reacting with more than usual vigor north of the Somme have made counter attacks after counter attacks during the last twenty-four hours without in any way changing the position of the French. According to French official reports, all attempts of the Germans to regain lost ground have been beaten off by the French rifle machine guns and artillery fire while the work of strengthening and adapting the newly won trenches is being carried on speedily and methodically by the engineers corps.

The French commanders regard the situation on the whole as excellent and say that the arrangements in the rear of the attacking forces have reached a pitch of perfection never before seen. Material of all kinds is in abundance for feeding, according to reports, the actual requirements and everything is in readiness for an attempt to push the advance farther when the time is ripe.

The fury of the German assaults and the strength of the effective engaged show the determination of the emperor's generals to spare no efforts to prevent the French from working their way along the north bank of the river by way of Clercy to attack Peronne from two sides. Aviators report that the Germans are making efforts to reinforce the already strongly fortified positions about Clercy and are gathering reserves from several directions. Heavy fighting is looked for in the near future.

GERMANS ARE DRIVEN BACK BY THE FRENCH.

PARIS, via London, August 1.—Nodth of the river Aisne is the Somme region, the Germans last night attempted to attack in strong force against the French positions in the Lihans sector, says the official statement issued this afternoon by the French war department. Striking Points in Hughes's Speech

We are unreservedly, devotedly, wholeheartedly for the United States. That is the rallying point for all Americans. I stand for the unflinching maintenance of American rights on land and sea.

Adequate preparedness is not militarism. It is the essential assurance of security; it is a necessary safeguard of peace. We must have the strength of self-respect—a strength which contains no threat, but assures our defense, safeguards our rights and conserves our peace.

At the very beginning of our present administration, where in the direction of diplomatic intercourse there should have been conspicuous strength and expertise, we had weakness and inexperience.

The dealings of the administration with Mexico constitute a confused chapter of blunders. It is a record which cannot be examined without a profound sense of humiliation.

The Republicans stand for the safeguarding of our economic independence, for the development of American industry, for the maintenance of American standards of living.

We make common cause in this country not for a few, but for all; and our watchword must be co-operation, not exploitation.

The granting of suffrage to women is inevitable.

Our opponents promised economy, but they have shown reckless extravagance. It is time we had fiscal reform.

We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation. Every American must unreservedly condemn them and support every effort for their suppression.

BIG CROWD WILL HEAR MRS. CATT TALK SUFFRAGE

Men and Women from All Parts of the Northern End of State Will Attend.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, will address a public meeting in the city of Clarksburg on the afternoon of Thursday, August 3. Realizing the importance of the occasion thousands of men and women from all parts of northern West Virginia will be present to listen to the national leader of the equal suffrage cause.

There is no person in the country who is so well informed on the subject of equal suffrage as Mrs. Catt. She is part of the "history" of the "cause." She has helped accomplish all that has been accomplished and she has a firm grasp on all that is desired to accomplish along this line. Her coming will be an inspiration to every voter and to every woman who believes that a government is not a democracy until all the people are represented.

HUGHEC ASSAILS WILSON POLICIES

In a Great American Speech Accepting the Nomination for the Presidency.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Charles E. Hughes last night outlined in his speech of acceptance the issues upon which he will conduct his campaign for the presidency.

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration for the course it has pursued with reference to Mexico, maintenance of American rights during the European war, preparedness and other great questions of the day. He declared for a new policy of "firmness and consistency toward Mexico," for "the unflinching maintenance of all American rights on land and sea," and for "adequate national defense; adequate protection on both our western and eastern coasts."

"We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation," Mr. Hughes said. "Utterly intolerable is the use of our soil for alien intrigues. Every American must unreservedly condemn them and support every effort for their suppression."

The nominee assailed the administration for its "direction of diplomatic intercourse" from the beginning, declaring that where there should have been conspicuous strength and expertise there had been weakness and inexperience. He cited San Domingo as an instance where appointments had gone to "deserving Democrats" and to the failure to continue Ambassador Herriek at his post in Paris after the war had started as "a lamentable sacrifice of international repute."

"I endorse the declaration in the platform in favor of woman suffrage," Mr. Hughes declared. And he added: "Opposition may delay, but in my judgment cannot defeat this movement. I favor the vote for women."

Lays Stress on Mexican Muddle. One-fourth of the speech was devoted to Mexico. Step by step taken by the administration with reference to Mexico was assailed, from the days of Huerta to the note sent to the de facto government by the state department June 20 last, part of which was quoted in the speech. The seizure of Vera Cruz, the nominee said, "was war, of course."

"Later we retired from Vera Cruz," he continued, "giving up this noble warfare. Recently the naked truth was admitted by a cabinet officer. We were now informed that we did not go to Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag. We are told that we went there to 'show Mexico that we were in earnest in our demand that Huerta must go.'"

America, Mr. Hughes continued, had no policy of aggression toward Mexico, no desire for any part of her territory, but wished her to have peace, stability and prosperity.

"The conduct of the administration has created difficulties we shall have to surmount," he said. "We demand from Mexico the protection of the lives and property of our citizens and the security of our border from depredations."

Safeguarding American rights abroad had not been accomplished. Mr. Hughes said, by the administration. There had been "brave words in a series of notes," but "what does it avail to use some of the strongest words known to diplomacy in ambassadors can receive the impression that the words are not to be taken seriously?" The nominee reiterated his declaration that had this government left no doubt that it meant to hold Germany to "strict accountability" there would have been no loss of life on the Lusitania.

Discussing preparedness, Mr. Hughes said it was apparent that the United States was "shockingly unprepared."

"The administration has failed to discharge its responsibilities," Mr. Hughes continued. "Apparently it is now seeking to meet political exigencies by its navy program. But it has imposed upon the country an incompetent naval administration."

Voices Plea for Real Preparedness. "We demand adequate protection on both our eastern and western coasts. We demand thoroughness and efficiency in both arms of the service. It seems to be plain that our regular army is too small. We are too great a country to require of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations, the sort of military service to which they are now called."

Of the present prosperity Mr. Hughes said, "we are living in a fool's paradise." It is, he said, a prosperity brought about by the abnormal conditions of war. For the protection of the industries and workmen of the United States against the competition of "an energized Europe," Mr. Hughes said it was plain that "we must have protective, upbuilding policies." Other measures, too, should be applied, he said, notably the upbuilding of a merchant marine.

"To make peace lasting and effective when the present war shall end," Mr. Hughes advocated the formation of an international tribunal to dispose of controversies of a justifiable sort, backed by the co-operation of the nations to prevent war before peaceful methods of adjustment end.

Mr. Hughes also declared for the "conservation of the just interests of labor," for conservation of national resources and for a national budget. "Our opponents promised economy but they have shown a reckless extravagance. It is time we had fiscal reform."

Mr. Hughes closed with an endorsement of the Republican platform, adopted by the national convention and a formal acceptance of the nomination.

Great Audience Shows Enthusiasm. The large audience which crowded Carnegie hall to capacity, cheered for several minutes when Mr. Hughes appeared shortly after 8 o'clock.

The nominee, recognizing Theodore Roosevelt in one of the boxes, waved to him, and Colonel Roosevelt clapped his hands in acknowledgment.

Senator Harding, of Ohio, chairman of the notification committee, was cheered at every reference to the name of the nominee and a Re-

TIDE IS TOO LOW FOR SUBMARINE

Which Has Made Its Final Arrangements for Departure from Bay.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 1.—With a pilot aboard and primed fully as to engine efficiency, fuel and provisions, the German merchant submarine Deutschland remained moored to its pier at Locust Point this afternoon at the conclusion of activities indicating final preparations for its starting on its return voyage to Germany.

No official reason could be ascertained for the delay but it was assumed that the tide was not high at this morning's flood stage. This was due to a strong adverse wind blowing down the river and bay. The next high tide occurs between 7 and 9 o'clock tonight.

Unusual precautions were taken to protect the Deutschland from possible harm from above or below the surface. The channel around the submarine ship to the main channel was thoroughly swept by a drag suspended on a long line between the tugs Thomas F. Timmins and a launch and publican victory in November. When he finished the band played and the crowd arose and cheered again.

Mr. Hughes was frequently interrupted by laughter and applause. After delivering his speech he was host at a reception to the notification committee and the invited guests of the notification ceremony.
